

2011 DGS Marching Mustangs
University of Illinois Competition – October 22nd – 23rd
Chaperone and Pit Crew Volunteer Sign-Up

Can you believe it, the marching competition season is half way over!!! This year's Marching Mustangs will travel to (7) competitions over six weekends. We will also perform in (5) home football games (not including playoffs). The Marching Mustangs will also participate in the McDonald's Thanksgiving Day Parade in Chicago. As always, the band needs volunteer parent support at each performance to move Pit Equipment on and off the field, and to accompany the band as chaperones on the bus. The 2011 Illini Marching Band Festival held at the University of Illinois is no exception.

This is the official call for University of Illinois Chaperones. This trip includes one Saturday competition (2011 Illini Marching Band Festival), and a 2-day time commitment with the band. Volunteers are needed to chaperone the buses, hotel and post competition dinner / dance party. The chaperones also need to assist with moving Pit Equipment for the performance. Although several people have already expressed an interest in chaperoning this event, we still have space available. If you are interested in accompanying the band as a chaperone, EVEN IF YOU HAVE ALREADY EXPRESSED AN INTEREST, please REPLY to this message and provide the information requested below. NOTE: If both parents are volunteering, please complete the information for both parents (phones, email addresses, dietary needs, etc.).

Yes, I would like to be included as a Chaperone and Pit Helper for the U of I Competition!
