Tri-M Honor Society

What is Tri-M?

Tri-M is a music honor society that stands for Modern Music Masters. It recognizes student's musical talent, academic achievement, and leadership.

Why join?

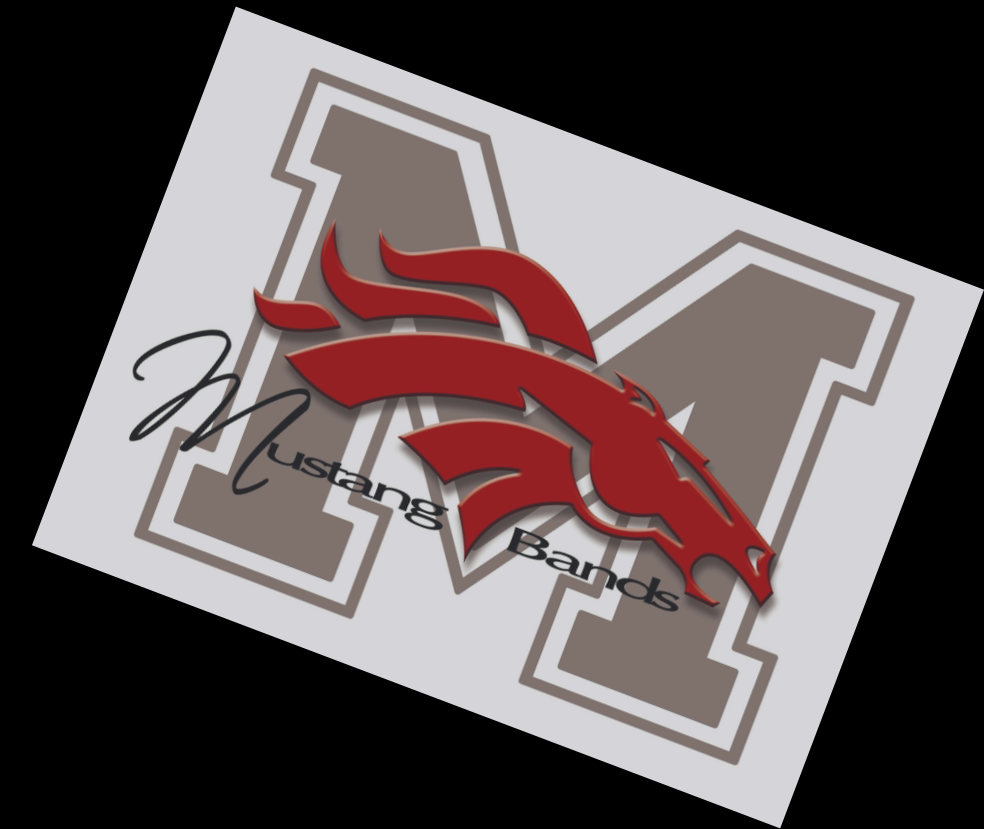

Tri-M is a great opportunity to interact with other musicians through volunteering and activities and looks great on college applications! Senior members also get to wear a pink cord at graduation for their membership!

Applications

Applications will be released once the school year begins, and we will notify through the band app when they are released. Students will be able to find applications in the band room or choir room, and we will continue to advertise when the school year starts!

What does it do for us and community?

Tri-M allows students and their peers to connect in a music based setting. Furthermore, students are able to get out in their communities to volunteer and serve.
